

NO CITY WORKERS OF CHICAGO STRIKE

NAVAL WIRELESS
LIMITS SERVICE
*Will Not Accept Commercial
Messages Here.*

Wards and Garbage Handlers
Unit—Many Others Threaten to Follow.

POLICE GUARD COUNCIL

Firemen Say They Will Resign
if Higher Pay Demand Is Refused.

Chicago, March 30.—With 1,000 City Hall clerks, stenographers and bookkeepers on strike to-day, the municipal garbage collection plant closed through the want of new wage handlers and the threat of 10 per cent. of firemen to resign unless wage advances were granted. Chicago Guard Council, a general strike of city employees.

The City Hall was picketed by striking clerks and stenographers. The police were called to preserve order after a stenographer who remained on duty was attacked. The sessions of the City Council also were guarded by policemen.

The City Council, which to-day rejected a revised budget calling for an increase of $1,000,000 to provide salary advances for city employees, met again to-night in an endeavor to find a way out of financial difficulties.

Other groups of city employees, including sewer workers, street inspectors, pumping station engineers and the laboratory staff of the Health Commission, all of whom threatened to strike unless wage advances were granted.

The strike of garbage handlers, who are on the collected and disposal of garbage at a total cost of $1,000,000, was started on the 1st of March.

Garbage collectors and drivers, who are willing to work for $1,000,000, were asked to return to work by the City Council.

The letter said the firemen were dismissed at the look of consideration shown to their request for increases.

James Flynn, president of the Clerks and Stenographers Union, said the strikers would remain out until their demands for an increase of $25 a month

and more than clerks now receive

$1,000 to $1,500 and senior clerks $1,625

to $1,800.

Window washers who were receiving

$1,000 a year struck for $1,875.

The garbage handlers demanded an increase in pay from $4 a day to $5.60.

ST. LOUIS FIREMEN THREATEN STRIKE

Quit in Thirty Days Unless Wage Demand Is Granted.

Special to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD.

St. Louis, March 30.—The City Firemen's Union, consisting of virtually every firefighter in St. Louis, to-day to-day unanimously voted to strike unless the city granted their wage demands within thirty days.

It was voted to accept a 10 per cent. wage increase within the first six months and the strikers would remain out until their demands for an increase of $25 a month and more than clerks now receive

$1,000 to $1,500 and senior clerks $1,625

to $1,800.

The strikers also demand that the present system under which they work two days and are off one, shall be replaced by what is known as the two week system, under which they will work twelve hours or twenty-four hours, and be of an equal length of time.

There are 240 employees of the department, of whom 70 are captains, 70 lieutenants, 53 engineers and 266 privates.

HIGHER BIDS FOR U. S. SHIPS.

$1,700,000 Offered for Yale and Harvard "On Time."

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Bids opened to-day by the Navy Department for purchase on time of the steamships Yale and Harvard showed a substantial increase over recently rejected early bids.

The bids for the Yale, which had been submitted $1,700,000 for both vessels, came from the International Navigation Corporation of New Orleans. This, however, is $50,000 under the department's appraisal of the craft. A decision on the bids is not expected for some days.

8-CENT PAPER TAX FREE.

Revenue Act Change Aims to Aid
Small Newspapers.

Washington, March 30.—Print papers costing less than three cents a copy would be subject to a tax under a bill amending the Revenue act, proposed by the House today and sent to the Senate. The present law gives dividends to the small papers and none of that price was obtainable for them.

Representative Kilburn (North Carolina) said the bill was an emergency measure, meant to save "hundreds of small newspapers from ruin."

PRINCESS NURSE QUIT.

Her Beauty Puts Washington Hospital in State of Siege.

Washington, March 30.—Movie men, reporters and a curious public proved too much for Princess Nadia Yashvili Troubetzkoy, styled the most beautiful nurse in the world, when she tried to work in Garfield Memorial Hospital here. The news that a nurse and a princess at that was in the institution put the place in a state of siege. The princess informed the superintendent "it was too nerve racking" and left.

CORNELL FUND PASSES MILLION.

Ithaca, March 30.—Cornell graduates and friends in New York City have raised $1,000,000 for the building of a permanent endowment fund to be used to finance a university to be founded by Francis S. Washburn, chairman of the New York committee. The quota for the city is $400,000, and $200,000 will be disbursed to obtain the full amount. Of the amount $800,000 was contributed by graduates.

Cars Just Freed From Blockade.

Street cars which were stalled between Philadelph and Oregon village in western Pennsylvania seven weeks ago were cleared out yesterday and resumed their runs over part of the line. We are still blocking the tracks at the Oregon terminal and four or five days will be required to get cars through. There is still snow on the ground part of the way.

Mrs. Isabel Kerr Wins Divorce.

Mrs. Isabel K. Kerr of Gardner City, daughter of former Senator Senator Charles Cooper of Brooklyn, won a divorce yesterday from Frederick Kerr, brother of 115 West Fifty-seventh street, Justice Van Slyden in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, signing the decree. She was allowed $100 a month alimony. The Kerrs were married in 1912 and have one child, Duril, 3 years old.

NAVAL WIRELESS
LIMITS SERVICE
*Will Not Accept Commercial
Messages Here.*

SUFFRAGE SHIFTS IN MISSISSIPPI

Gets Stay, Which Will Be Argued To-day.

Senate Ratifies Amendment,
Thus Reversing Action and Giving New Hope.

FRESH FIGHT IN HOUSE

Gov. Russell Tells Women
That There Is a Good Chance for Passage.

Jackson, Miss., March 30.—The Mississippi State Senate to-day ratified the Federal woman suffrage amendment, thus reversing the action of several weeks ago, when the amendment was mentioned.

The circular says that the law will not interfere with the report giving the position of women as on the amendment.

Mississippi, however, bearing that enables navigators in marine service to find out exactly where they are. Commercial messages from ship to shore and from shore to ship will be sent at the same rates as telegrams.

The circular says that the law will not interfere with the report giving the position of women as on the amendment.

The House rejected the amendment February 18 by a vote of 106 to 26. House leaders, learning of the Senate's action, said the session, which was to adjourn Saturday, might be prolonged to allow another vote in that body.

Suffrage leaders, who had abandoned hope of favorable action, immediately notified their supporters to meet at the State capitol to-day to try to stop the resolution.

The circular says that the House had reversed its position.

Gov. J. W. (Sam) Taylor, of Mississippi, has been taken to the White House by Daniel F. Coffahan, attorney general, to show cause why his order should not be released on a certificate of reasonable doubt. He will hear arguments this morning.

Wintsky was sentenced Monday by Supreme Court Justice Daniel F. Coffahan yesterday temporarily halted the execution of the prison sentence imposed upon Harry M. Wintsky, Communist leader.

Judge Coffahan granted an application made by Fallon & Metcalf, attorneys for Wintsky, for an order to show cause why their client should not be released on a certificate of reasonable doubt. He will hear arguments this morning.

Wintsky was sentenced Monday by Supreme Court Justice Daniel F. Coffahan yesterday temporarily halted the execution of the prison sentence imposed upon Harry M. Wintsky, Communist leader.

Judge Coffahan granted an application made by Fallon & Metcalf, attorneys for Wintsky, for an order to show cause why their client should not be released on a certificate of reasonable doubt. He will hear arguments this morning.

Wintsky was sentenced Monday by Supreme Court Justice Daniel F. Coffahan yesterday temporarily halted the execution of the prison sentence imposed upon Harry M. Wintsky, Communist leader.

Judge Coffahan granted an application made by Fallon & Metcalf, attorneys for Wintsky, for an order to show cause why their client should not be released on a certificate of reasonable doubt. He will hear arguments this morning.

Wintsky was sentenced Monday by Supreme Court Justice Daniel F. Coffahan yesterday temporarily halted the execution of the prison sentence imposed upon Harry M. Wintsky, Communist leader.

Judge Coffahan granted an application made by Fallon & Metcalf, attorneys for Wintsky, for an order to show cause why their client should not be released on a certificate of reasonable doubt. He will hear arguments this morning.

Wintsky was sentenced Monday by Supreme Court Justice Daniel F. Coffahan yesterday temporarily halted the execution of the prison sentence imposed upon Harry M. Wintsky, Communist leader.

Judge Coffahan granted an application made by Fallon & Metcalf, attorneys for Wintsky, for an order to show cause why their client should not be released on a certificate of reasonable doubt. He will hear arguments this morning.

Wintsky was sentenced Monday by Supreme Court Justice Daniel F. Coffahan yesterday temporarily halted the execution of the prison sentence imposed upon Harry M. Wintsky, Communist leader.

Judge Coffahan granted an application made by Fallon & Metcalf, attorneys for Wintsky, for an order to show cause why their client should not be released on a certificate of reasonable doubt. He will hear arguments this morning.

Wintsky was sentenced Monday by Supreme Court Justice Daniel F. Coffahan yesterday temporarily halted the execution of the prison sentence imposed upon Harry M. Wintsky, Communist leader.

Judge Coffahan granted an application made by Fallon & Metcalf, attorneys for Wintsky, for an order to show cause why their client should not be released on a certificate of reasonable doubt. He will hear arguments this morning.

Wintsky was sentenced Monday by Supreme Court Justice Daniel F. Coffahan yesterday temporarily halted the execution of the prison sentence imposed upon Harry M. Wintsky, Communist leader.

Judge Coffahan granted an application made by Fallon & Metcalf, attorneys for Wintsky, for an order to show cause why their client should not be released on a certificate of reasonable doubt. He will hear arguments this morning.

Wintsky was sentenced Monday by Supreme Court Justice Daniel F. Coffahan yesterday temporarily halted the execution of the prison sentence imposed upon Harry M. Wintsky, Communist leader.

Judge Coffahan granted an application made by Fallon & Metcalf, attorneys for Wintsky, for an order to show cause why their client should not be released on a certificate of reasonable doubt. He will hear arguments this morning.

Wintsky was sentenced Monday by Supreme Court Justice Daniel F. Coffahan yesterday temporarily halted the execution of the prison sentence imposed upon Harry M. Wintsky, Communist leader.

Judge Coffahan granted an application made by Fallon & Metcalf, attorneys for Wintsky, for an order to show cause why their client should not be released on a certificate of reasonable doubt. He will hear arguments this morning.

Wintsky was sentenced Monday by Supreme Court Justice Daniel F. Coffahan yesterday temporarily halted the execution of the prison sentence imposed upon Harry M. Wintsky, Communist leader.

Judge Coffahan granted an application made by Fallon & Metcalf, attorneys for Wintsky, for an order to show cause why their client should not be released on a certificate of reasonable doubt. He will hear arguments this morning.

Wintsky was sentenced Monday by Supreme Court Justice Daniel F. Coffahan yesterday temporarily halted the execution of the prison sentence imposed upon Harry M. Wintsky, Communist leader.

Judge Coffahan granted an application made by Fallon & Metcalf, attorneys for Wintsky, for an order to show cause why their client should not be released on a certificate of reasonable doubt. He will hear arguments this morning.

Wintsky was sentenced Monday by Supreme Court Justice Daniel F. Coffahan yesterday temporarily halted the execution of the prison sentence imposed upon Harry M. Wintsky, Communist leader.

Judge Coffahan granted an application made by Fallon & Metcalf, attorneys for Wintsky, for an order to show cause why their client should not be released on a certificate of reasonable doubt. He will hear arguments this morning.

Wintsky was sentenced Monday by Supreme Court Justice Daniel F. Coffahan yesterday temporarily halted the execution of the prison sentence imposed upon Harry M. Wintsky, Communist leader.

Judge Coffahan granted an application made by Fallon & Metcalf, attorneys for Wintsky, for an order to show cause why their client should not be released on a certificate of reasonable doubt. He will hear arguments this morning.

Wintsky was sentenced Monday by Supreme Court Justice Daniel F. Coffahan yesterday temporarily halted the execution of the prison sentence imposed upon Harry M. Wintsky, Communist leader.

Judge Coffahan granted an application made by Fallon & Metcalf, attorneys for Wintsky, for an order to show cause why their client should not be released on a certificate of reasonable doubt. He will hear arguments this morning.

Wintsky was sentenced Monday by Supreme Court Justice Daniel F. Coffahan yesterday temporarily halted the execution of the prison sentence imposed upon Harry M. Wintsky, Communist leader.

Judge Coffahan granted an application made by Fallon & Metcalf, attorneys for Wintsky, for an order to show cause why their client should not be released on a certificate of reasonable doubt. He will hear arguments this morning.

Wintsky was sentenced Monday by Supreme Court Justice Daniel F. Coffahan yesterday temporarily halted the execution of the prison sentence imposed upon Harry M. Wintsky, Communist leader.

Judge Coffahan granted an application made by Fallon & Metcalf, attorneys for Wintsky, for an order to show cause why their client should not be released on a certificate of reasonable doubt. He will hear arguments this morning.

Wintsky was sentenced Monday by Supreme Court Justice Daniel F. Coffahan yesterday temporarily halted the execution of the prison sentence imposed upon Harry M. Wintsky, Communist leader.

Judge Coffahan granted an application made by Fallon & Metcalf, attorneys for Wintsky, for an order to show cause why their client should not be released on a certificate of reasonable doubt. He will hear arguments this morning.

Wintsky was sentenced Monday by Supreme Court Justice Daniel F. Coffahan yesterday temporarily halted the execution of the prison sentence imposed upon Harry M. Wintsky, Communist leader.

Judge Coffahan granted an application made by Fallon & Metcalf, attorneys for Wintsky, for an order to show cause why their client should not be released on a certificate of reasonable doubt. He will hear arguments this morning.

Wintsky was sentenced Monday by Supreme Court Justice Daniel F. Coffahan yesterday temporarily halted the execution of the prison sentence imposed upon Harry M. Wintsky, Communist leader.

Judge Coffahan granted an application made by Fallon & Metcalf, attorneys for Wintsky, for an order to show cause why their client should not be released on a certificate of reasonable doubt. He will hear arguments this morning.

Wintsky was sentenced Monday by Supreme Court Justice Daniel F. Coffahan yesterday temporarily halted the execution of the prison sentence imposed upon Harry M. Wintsky, Communist leader.

Judge Coffahan granted an application made by Fallon & Metcalf, attorneys for Wintsky, for an order to show cause why their client should not be released on a certificate of reasonable doubt. He will hear arguments this morning.

Wintsky was sentenced Monday by Supreme Court Justice Daniel F. Coffahan yesterday temporarily halted the execution of the prison sentence imposed upon Harry M. Wintsky, Communist leader.

Judge Coffahan granted an application made by Fallon & Metcalf, attorneys for Wintsky, for an order to show cause why their client should not be released on a certificate of reasonable doubt. He will hear arguments this morning.

Wintsky was sentenced Monday by Supreme Court Justice Daniel F. Coffahan yesterday temporarily halted the execution of the prison sentence imposed upon Harry M. Wintsky, Communist leader.

Judge Coffahan granted an application made by Fallon & Metcalf, attorneys for Wintsky, for an order to show cause why their client should not be released on a certificate of reasonable doubt. He will hear arguments this morning.

Wintsky was sentenced Monday by Supreme Court Justice Daniel F. Coffahan yesterday temporarily halted the execution of the prison sentence imposed upon Harry M. Wintsky, Communist leader.

Judge Coffahan granted an application made by Fallon & Metcalf, attorneys for Wintsky, for an order to show cause why their client should not be released on a certificate of reasonable doubt. He will hear arguments this morning.

Wintsky was sentenced Monday by Supreme Court Justice Daniel F. Coffahan yesterday temporarily halted the execution of the prison sentence imposed upon Harry M. Wintsky, Communist leader.